Hospital Maneuver Reduces Bond Issue Requirement

Grossmont Hospital trustees are determined that you are going to pay for a nine million dollar expansion.

Twice you were asked to do it and twice you rejected their offer to build you a bigger hospital — with your money, of course.

Trustees didn't consider it a mandate when you turned down an eight million dollar bond issue November 28, 1967 so they bounced right back with an altered proposal of a six million dollar improvement on November 5, 1968. This, too, was rejected.

Hospital officials refused to believe taxpayers didn't want more hospital. This, in spite of the new Alvarado Medical Center and the greatly expanding Doctors Hospital — both financed by private funds and operated on a use charge commensurate with or lower than Grossmont which was paid for by tax funds.

Doctors Hospital recently attracted nation-wide attention when it announced a substantial reduction in room rates by effecting common-sense economies.

Grossmont officials, failing twice to get the 66 2/3 majority approval necessary in 1967 and 1968, recently applied to the supervisors for a curer way of getting tax dollars for building what they are determined to build.

Grossmont officials were issued a Joint Powers Agreement by which they may now get the money from local taxpayers if only fifty percent of the voters approve the general obligation bond issue.

Of course it's legal — but its sneaky.

County officials are reportedly "sheepish" in their feeling about the maneuver.

Grossmont's application for the JPA had been given Chief Administrative Officer Fred Morey's approval a week earlier. Monday, this important matter was lumped in with several inconsequential ones and the supervisors approved the composite package.

Under the agreement, the district, acting on behalf of the joint authority, would design and build and staff the hospital addition. Upon completion of the construction, the district would lease the facilities from the authority at a rent sufficient to pay principal and interest on the bonds and expenses of the authority.

Grossmont Hospital has done little to create complete faith in the operation of the facility since the time former director Homer Streich once said that the public had no right to know how Grossmont was being operated.

Streich, now deceased, said later that he meant something different.

Directors, through its administrator, several years ago, announced that the next expansion of the hospital would be a branch — probably near the Broadway - Campo - Palm ave. interchange. Without so much as announcing a change in plot, a proposal to expand the present facility was later revealed.

This pillar is not so much concerned with programs planned by the hospital district as it is the feeling that officials — and this includes those doctors who ramrod the programs — think the doctors are owners of the hospital.

This isn't so. The hospital is owned by every taxpayer in the district and the maneuver to circumnavigate the 66 2/3 general obligation bond vote requirement does nothing to rebuild trust and faith.

Grossmont hospital could do better to encourage Legislature to take another look at the laws governing who-pays-for-what public facilities.

We think the Joint Powers Agreement action will cause public sentiment to be further crystalized against the increased tax burden and if this is so, it will be a long time before the issue will have the remotest chance of passing again.

Sweetwater Speed Limit Unchanged at 45 M.P.H.

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A reduction of the speed limit on Sweetwater road from 45 miles an hour was refused on Monday by the County Board of Supervisors.

The recommendation of the traffic advisory committee was adopted, leaving the limit at the same speed.

Several persons had requested a reduction in speed on this over-loaded four-lane road and Traffic Engineer Howard Taylor instituted a review of the speed zoning.

The committee said the problem cannot be solved by cutting the speed limit.

It said the problem does not appear to be excess speed, but the heavy traffic volume.

L.G. Chamber Calls Special Meeting

A special meeting of the board of directors of the L.G. Chamber of Commerce has been called for Tuesday at 4 p.m. at the chamber office, 3415 Imperial, president Frank Shughrue said today.

"We have to come to a decision on Christmas decorations and we want to decide whether the board wants to reduce the number of members on the board," he said. Board members had complained that the board is too unwieldy. There are nineteen board members.

Inoculation Advised Flu Risks

Although only sporadic outbreaks of influenza are expected this year, persons in high risk groups yesterday were advised to get protective shots as soon as possible by Dr. Simon C. Brumbaugh, Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area chairman of the Tuberculosis & Health Assn. of San Diego and Imperial Counties.

Those suffering from advanced tuberculosis, chronic bronchitis, emphysema, asthma, heart disease, or diabetes are the most likely victims of flu.

The U. S. Public Health Service also advises that older persons, particularly those with insipient or potential cardio-pulmonary disease, and patients in nursing homes, be immunized against influenza.

"Because influenza caused both the A-2 and B strains was widespread last year, with a peak in Jan. 1969, the Public Health Service does not expect a flu epidemic this winter," Dr. Brumbaugh said.

"Until good protection is provided consistently by influenza vaccine," he continued, "it is not recommended for healthy adults and children."

"But for those at high risk, even a mild case of flu can be dangerous," he said.

Grossmont Hospital-JPA Wedding Cuts Bonds OK From Two-thirds to One-half

ILL WIND — It's a hot Santa Ana that blows no good, chapping lips, drying grass and, in some cases, blowing over trees with its gusty high wind. This tree was grounded on Canton dr., at the corner of Watwood.

By Dick Sims

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Approval of the formation of a Joint Powers Authority with the Grossmont Hospital District was given by the County Board of Supervisors on Monday.

Normally, such an authority can issue revenue bonds without an election, but in this case a majority of the voters in the hospital district must approve the formation of the authority.

A special state law carries this requirement.

The vote, in effect, will be a bond issue election, but with an over-50 percent requirement rather than the 66 2/3 per cent requirement of a general obligation bond issue.

The JPA (joint powers authority) is an independent agency with the sole role of issuing bonds and paying them off.

The district would supervise design and construction of the hospital addition of 164 beds that is planned. It would also continue its management and operation of the hospital.

The county won't do anything except lend its name to the JPA. All of the revenue to pay the bond interest and principal will be paid by the district to the JPA.

The county has entered into a number of joint power agreements, but seldom as the principal party. One has been formed with the Ramona School District for construction of a county branch building with office space for the district.

County officials privately admit to some sheepishness at the use of JPAs to get around the two-thirds vote of a general obligation bond.

They find it awkward that a JPA can do something for a public agency that the agency cannot do for itself, that is, obligate payments beyond a single tax year without an election.

The county can and does borrow from the County Retirement Board for some construction, especially for libraries, but must pay regular commercial interest rates.

JPA revenue bonds get a somewhat lower rate because they are "municipals" and so far income tax free.

While county officials might not like JPAs, they feel they must use the device because of the near-impossibility of passing a general obligation bond issue county-wide to build a building in one portion of the county.

Assistant Chief Administrative Officer Charles Bobertz, in conversation with County News Assn., "The state legislature is not going to turn loose its monetary control of local agencies. As long as state law controls the money, the legislators controls us."

He agreed that some of the control is unrealistic, unbusiness-like, but also untouchable at the local level.

Boney Opposes Teacher-Pushed Property Tax

County Supervisor Henry A. Boney attacked a proposed property tax initiative sponsored by the Supervisors' Association of California and the California Teachers' Association.

In a letter to the Board of Supervisors Boney called the proposed initiative a "hoax which will provide more money to counties and to school districts but will not provide any property tax relief for California's taxpayers."

Boney said the Supervisors' and Teachers' Associations have contracted with a San Francisco public relations firm in an effort to have the initiative placed on the primary election ballot June 2, 1970.

According to William R. MacDougall, general manager of the Supervisors' Association, the proposed initiative could provide up to $920 million in tax relief.

"My principle objection to this property tax reform initiative is that it does little more than shift some small part of the local cost of government to the State, without providing any guaranteed property tax reduction," Boney said.

The Board of Supervisors is expected to consider both Boney's letter and a request for support from the County Supervisors' Association of California at the regularly scheduled Monday meeting.

High School Board Expels 10 Students

In a special meeting Monday night, the Grossmont Union School District Governing Board expelled a Grossmont senior for use of dangerous drugs off campus.

The boy had been previously expelled by the Board but reinstated in school on a court order pending the reopening of the case by the Grossmont Governing Board.

The Board met for an hour and forty minutes in executive session on the matter, hearing presentations from the school district administration and a lawyer representing the student. Nine other students were also expelled.

Countywide Zoning Decision May Spring From Monday Hearing

The Board of Supervisors will hold a public hearing Monday to consider the adoption and application of a new LC Limited Control Zone.

If adopted, the LC Zone would apply limited zoning regulations to all of the unincorporated territory of the County not presently zoned.

The hearing is scheduled for 2 p.m. in the Board of Supervisors' South Chamber at the County Administration Center.

The County Planning Commission recommended to the Board that the proposed LC Zone be adopted.

If adopted, the LC Limited Control Zone would permit one and two-family dwellings, agricultural uses, and home occupations on lots or building sites with a minimum area of 2 1/2 gross acres.

All other uses, including residential development on small lots, mobilehome parks, and commercial and industrial establishments, would be permitted upon issuance of a Special Use Permit with the minimum area depending upon the particular circumstances, but in no event less than 6,000 square feet.

In addition, lots smaller than 2 1/2 gross acres shown on an approved final subdivision map or on tentative subdivision maps or division of land plats (lot splits), approved or filed for approval prior to the adoption of the LC zoning, will be considered legal building sites if such lots are recorded within two years after adoption of the LC zoning.

Sups Say They've Been 'Had' By CTA Tax Shift Initiative

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — This county's supervisors made it clear on Tuesday that they believe their fellow supervisors up and down the state have been "had" by the California Teachers' Association in co-sponsorship of a tax-shift initiative.

The board endorsed the recommendation of Chief Administrative Officer Fred Morey to oppose the constitutional amendment.

In doing so, the board went on record as opposing the stand of the County Supervisors' Association of California (CSAC) whose board of directors has voted to support the initiative with the CTA.

The initiative would force the state to fund 50 percent of public school systems expenses.

It would force the state to fund all but 10 percent of county welfare costs, and require state funding for each new county program needing new, additional, or increased service after Nov. 10, 1969, if the programs are mandated by the state.

County Counsel Bertram McLees warned that the initiative, if it becomes law, could result in "nearly endless litigation" to determine what the initiative wording really means.

Morey said the measure could cause a real rupture of county-state relations because of the irritation of the legislators with legislation by initiative.

There is no provision, Morey said, to force school districts or counties to lower their tax rates to compensate for the extra money from the state.

Morey said that the real county cost increases are coming in the general field of public protection (courts, sheriff, district attorney, probation), rather than in welfare.

There are already cost-sharing programs in nearly all fields of welfare, including medical aid, but practically nothing for public protection, Morey said.

Requiring the state to fund new programs, the chief officer said, might cause the state to take over these programs, rather than be forced into detailed review of the programs, such as probation or the courts.

Morey said the initiative suffers from the grave defect of prohibiting certain forms of taxation without specifying the sources of replacement.

The initiative, according to Morey, would not solve the county's financing problems as the initial decrease of some $60 per $100 of assessed valuation would merely give the county a new base to be judged from.

Bill Bailey, well-known special events commentator, and Suzanne Arthimess, featured on San Diego television on behalf of the San Diego Convention and Visitors Bureau's Host program, will co-host the 90-minute telecast of the 23rd annual Mother Goose Parade on Channels 6, 8 and 10.

The largest Mother Goose Parade in 23 years — viewed by an estimated 475,000 persons last Sunday in El Cajon — will have three repeat performances over local television stations during the Thanksgiving holiday weekend.

Nov. 23, a leak in a gas installation in the garage of the Lonnie Shipper home at 3262 Citrus, caused about $50 damage; and a 1957 Pontiac car, belonging to Tom Pruitt of 2029 Massachusetts, caught fire at Massachusetts and Main st., due to a carburetor overflow, and caused about $25 damage.

Patricia James, 17, of 1554 Taft, was given first aid on Nov. 17 for illness, and later went to a hospital.

UC Nears Goals, End

United Crusade officials Wednesday extended the 1969 campaign as the drive reached 90 per cent of the $5,550,000 goal.

Lemon Grove had contributed 89 per cent of its goal, while the La Mesa-Spring Valley combined areas had pitched in for 85 per cent.

General chairman William E. Quirk reported that the campaign had passed the $5 million mark, exceeding the amount raised in last year's drive.

"We're on the ten yard line driving for a touchdown," Quirk stated. "I am confident that with a little more time we can drive this campaign over for a touchdown."

"We are, therefore, extending the drive until December 8. You might say we are going into an overtime and keeping all the team in the game. We think we can win it."

LG Fire Report

The Lemon Grove Fire Department answered two fire calls on Nov. 20 and two on Nov. 23. One rescue call was answered Nov. 19.

The two fire calls Nov. 20, were: one at "Fritz and Alice" Bar at 1825 Massachusetts ave. Actually someone was cleaning the grill in the kitchen and an extra amount of smoke went through the vent and a passerby thinking the place was afire, called the Fire Department, but no damage reported; and someone was illegally burning grass and trash at 1567 La Corta st., and was issued a warning.

Nov. 23, a leak in a gas installation in the garage of the Lonnie Shipper home at 3262 Citrus, caused about $50 damage; and a 1957 Pontiac car, belonging to Tom Pruitt of 2029 Massachusetts, caught fire at Massachusetts and Main st., due to a carburetor overflow, and caused about $25 damage.

Patricia James, 17, of 1554 Taft, was given first aid on Nov. 17 for illness, and later went to a hospital.

Atonement Lutheran Sets Service Today

Atonement Lutheran Church, 3345 Sweetwater Springs Blvd., Spring Valley, is scheduling their Thanksgiving Day Service at 9 a.m. The Thanksgiving message will be by Chaplain Lawrence P. Rudolph: "Happiness Is . . ." Mrs. Joanne Falk of La Mesa will be heard in the anthem "Praise Be To God."

Atonement congregation gives special thanks this year as it commemorates the fifth anniversary of the dedication of its church plant. The plant in its entirety was designed by local architect Robert E. Des Lauriers.

The church edifice is situated on a promontory overlooking Sweetwater Springs Blvd. and the entire valley, and has been occupied by the congregation since December 6, 1964. It is a landmark for the neighborhood with its lighted entrance window in stained glass.

The congregation, which is nine years old, was served by the Rev. Norman A. Schneider until May of this year, when he accepted a call to St. Peter's Lutheran Church in the St. Louis area. The Rev. Lawrence P. Rudolph, the chaplain at University Hospital in San Diego, and coordinator of Lutheran Chaplaincy Services of San Diego County, has been serving the congregation since May. In his message on Thanksgiving Day the pastor will declare: "Thanksgiving can be dangerous. It's dangerous when we forget the purpose of the day and allow ourselves to be distracted by turkey, football, and other otherwise enjoyable pursuits. 'It's dangerous when we forget to share with others. It's dangerous when we think only of our own security and forget about spiritual freedom. Thanksgiving is thanksgiving and sharing. If Christians don't take the lead in this, who will?'"

Christian Crusade Stops at Claremont

Stated to speak at a rally in Claremont on Tuesday, December 2, is Billy James Hargis, Founder-Director of

Youngsters' March For St. Jude Sunday

An army of San Diego teenagers will be marching for St. Jude Children's Hospital on December 7 to collect funds to be used against children's catastrophic diseases. Neighborhood platoons are now being formed in all corners of the city.

The fund-raiser for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is being handled completely by teenagers. Teenagers are still needed in parts of the city to fill out the neighborhood platoons.

Those who wish to participate should write: Danny Thomas, 1405 Fifth Ave., San Diego 92112, giving address, telephone number and school affiliation. They will be contacted immediately.

The Peace Corps is eight years old.

Scientists Have Special Program

A Thanksgiving Day Service, including a period for expressions of gratitude by members of the congregation, will be held at First Church of Christ Scientist, Lemon Grove today.

The public is welcome to attend the hour-long service which starts at 10 a.m. in the church edifice at 7741 Pacific Ave.

The soloist, Mrs. Dorothy Holden, will sing "Make a Joyful Noise" by Frank LaForge, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Virginia Fung.

The First Reader, Mrs. Klea Enstrom, conducts the services, and reads passages from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy. Bible selections are read by the Second Reader, Miss Jean Strong.

Four sections of short passages in the Lesson-Sermon develop the theme of the Golden Text from First Thessalonians: "Rejoice evermore. Pray without ceasing. In every thing give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you." The first section, with selections from Psalms, sets forth the primacy and power of God, the creative Mind.

The second section briefly relates the story of Ruth, whose faithfulness to God was abundantly rewarded.

In the third section, the power of faith in God is illustrated by Jesus' healing of the blind beggar.

The final section focuses on the solution of world problems, as promised in the words of the prophet Isaiah: "The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God."

Clergy At Seminar

DRUGS RATE POOR AUDIENCE, SAYS READER

Dear Editor:

What does it take to arouse the people of Lemon Grove to one of our nations biggest problems "drugs?"

Our club sponsored a narcotics conference Friday. After working on this project for over two months, lining up speakers and cutting stencils and sending out 2500 flyers which were handed out at four different grammar schools in Lemon Grove, we had a concerned audience of 35.

To say the least our panel of speakers, which included part of the narcotics department from the San Diego Sheriff's department were sadly disappointed. I guess the best way to sum it up was the way our young drug offenders that had been invited to talk to the parents said "no one cares!"

Just think back to that past Friday night, what were you doing?

UNITED CRUSADE ASKS FINAL SUPPORT

Dear Editor:

As you know, we have extended this year's United Crusade campaign until December 8 because I am convinced that we can reach our goal (for the first time in far too many years). Your support thus far has been one of the great strengths of this year's drive and we appreciate it very much.

I am now asking you to give us a little additional effort during this final all-out push to put the Crusade over the top. We must get the word across to all citizens and especially all Crusade volunteers, that it is crucial to complete solicitations and get reports in by December 8. I hope you will find it possible to give this last great effort your paper's editorial support. Any other help you

WHAT'S HAPPENED TO AMERICAN PEOPLE?

Dear Editor:

What has happened to the American peoples pride?

Now I wasn't around during the time of the first or second world wars, but I read and heard enough about both wars, that I know if it were not for the support of the American people, we would all be speaking German today. If it wasn't for the great pride of our country, and our flag, Hitler wouldn't have stopped in Europe, but would have taken us as well. So where has all the pride we had gone to?

If these people think they are helping the war effort, they're wrong. If anything they are loading the enemy down with so much propaganda material, that they're having trouble choosing what to use.

These demonstrations and moratorium days aren't going to stop the war, if anything they will prolong it. What is going to help stop the war is a united front. When the enemy realizes that the people are united in a team effort behind their government, then and only then will serious talk of peace be started. But as long as the people continue to fight against the policy of the United States our enemy will continue to hold out, waiting to see who wins our internal war.

Now about this Viet Nam moratorium day thing . . .

The men who died in Viet Nam, died for you, the people of the United States, but do you honor them as true Americans? The answer is a strong NO!! Instead you march around with their names on cards, shouting them at a "white building", disgracing their names, and also the people who mourn their death.

To you people, who like to wear names around your necks, how would you like it if I were to march around your house shouting the names of your loved ones who have died? I don't think you would like it one bit.

And for you people who like to wave Viet Cong flags, what's the matter, are you ashamed to wave the American flag? Yet, you all live in America, enjoy all it's rights, own your own car, live better than anyone else in the world, and have more time to yourselves and call yourselves Americans. But you're not Americans, not true Americans. Because if you were, you wouldn't be waving your Viet Cong flag. You people ARE Americans! Be proud of your flag and show it. For those who can still remember when the people of the United States had pride, what would you have done to a person who flew a Nazi flag during World War II? Most likely you would have killed him, or made him wish he were dead. But now times have changed, and people are content to swallow their pride than stand up and be counted.

Now I've been to Viet Nam, and I've seen what war is all about. And I think my country is right for doing what it is doing. Sure, some things could be done different, but then again nothing is ever perfect! So, if you people want to help the war effort to show the men in Viet Nam you care for them, and haven't turned their country into a war zone, try this . . .

Try to find out who in your city or town is in Viet Nam or overseas, write him a letter or make up a small gift package, and send it to him. I know he'll write you a big thanks for remembering him.

Show them that you are behind them all the way, and you're proud of them. Make yourselves proud to say "I'm an American."

Like some wise man once said, "It's my country, right or wrong, it's my country, and I'm proud of it."

May sound a little nutty, but it makes sense.

TO WED — Frances Lynn Wilkinson of Lemon Grove and Ronald Glen Hansen of Spring Valley have announced intentions to wed at a date not yet set, it was revealed last month. Miss Wilkinson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernal R. Wilkinson Sr. of 2341 Edgerton dr. She is a graduate of Mt. Miguel High School, attended Grossmont College and is now attending St. Vincent College of Nursing in Los Angeles.

The groom-elect, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen A. Hansen, live at 8103 Brampton, graduated from Mt. Miguel High and Grossmont College and is currently serving with the US Army in Vietnam.

Crime Expert Tells Kiwanis

The Spring Valley Kiwanis Club, at its Nov. 19 breakfast-meeting at the Golden Bowl banquet room, initiated two new members into the club, by way of Burt Hodge, Membership chairman; William Paslay, principal of La Presa Elementary School; and Webb Denger, owner of the Spring Valley Car Wash on Jamacha Blvd.

Guest speaker, who was introduced by member (first vice president) Hugh Norris, was John D'Alfonso, president of "Stamp Out Crime" Crusade, and author of the new paperback book, titled, "The Crime Game."

D'Alfonso, relating to his book, said we are "involved in a game of crime." He said there are many cases where evidence is suppressed. He said in criminal law, many times, the attorney's cry is to "pull out all stops." He said a "Life Sentence" doesn't actually mean a "LIFE" sentence, as a convicted person is able to apply for parole in 12 years, and a confession to police, without witnesses is void.

Speaking of the San Diego area, D'Alfonso said it is high in the crime rate. He said the last few years there have been many assaults on officers of the law. He said car thefts are up in the San Diego area.

John D'Alfonso said there are four points to remember:

1. Call the police when needed;
2. Prefer charges when warranted;
3. Demand strict enforcement of the law, and pass this word to all law-enforcement agencies;
4. Support your local police department.

Finally, D'Alfonso stressed, "Stand up and be counted."

Folk-rock Davis Co. At College Tuesday

The Associated Student Organization at Southwestern College will present the Dean Davis Company, a folk-rock group on Tuesday at 11 a.m. in Mayan Hall.

The group is comprised of students from Colorado State University, and have developed a unique style that creates a blend of folk and rock music combined with hilarious comedy material. They appeal mostly to the college level, however, their professionalism delights all ages.

Dean Davis, a senior at Colorado, is the arranger and also writes the material for the group.

Other performers with the Dean Davis Company are Paula Streiff, the vocalist, Vince Haffey, percussionist, Larry Johnson, guitarist and Ed Bigby, bass.

Miss Streiff has been with the group for two years, and her versatility complements the instruments to make the sound currently so popular. Often the most acclaimed member of the Company is Vince Haffey, a sophomore at Colorado, who has been a drummer since his early teens, and has played all types of music from straight jazz to folk.

Perhaps the most talented is the bassist, Ed Bigby. He has studied under David Potter of the Denver Symphony, and was formerly studio bassist for CBS in Chicago. His ability has earned him a scholarship at Colorado where he is in his junior year.

The newest member of the group is Larry Johnson, also a sophomore at Colorado. His guitar styling brings the big beat and gig sound that is so important to folk-rock music.

Feliciano Scheduled For Aztec Concert

Jose Feliciano, both misunderstood and popular at the same time, is coming to San Diego.

Feliciano, a blind guitar player and singer, will appear at San Diego State's Peterson Gym Dec. 7 at 8 p.m. The event is presented by the Cultural Arts Board.

Kid Art On Show

The Grossmont College Art Department will open a show of "Kid Art" on Monday, in the Griffin Gallery.

According to Mrs. Ritter, the multi-media art show will include finger painting, easel painting, paper mache construction, a variety of print-making techniques, rubbings, and stichery. Represented in the show will be the primary grades from 17 elementary schools in the La Mesa Spring Valley School District.

The public is invited to view Grossmont's Second Annual Kid Art Show and enjoy a fresh and vigorous approach to the various art media. The show will continue through Friday, Dec. 19.

Viewing hours are from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Friday, with additional viewing hours scheduled from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday evenings.

The Griffin Gallery will remain closed on Saturday and Sunday. There is no admission charge.

DUE AT CONCOURSE — The Steve Miller Band, including Lonnie Turner, Steve Miller and Tim Davis, is due to appear with the Youngbloods at the San Diego Community Concourse Dec. 6.

Tickets for the concert, scheduled to begin at 8:30 p.m., will go on sale Monday.

Benefit Planned

The Salvation Army's fourth annual Christmas benefit show, featuring world renowned hypnotist Dr. Michael Dean, will be held this year on Tuesday, December 9 at 7 p.m. at the Civic Theatre. Major Robert Yardley, director of the Salvation Army City Command announced.

Steve Miller Band, Youngbloods Due

A pair of transplanted San Francisco groups will appear in the Exhibit Hall of the Community Concourse Dec. 6.

The Steve Miller Band and the Youngbloods will play at 8:30 p.m. Tickets for the event will go on sale Monday at the Concourse.

All tickets are $3.75, with all seats unreserved. Steve Miller has appeared in the area a number of times, including concerts at the old Hippodrome, Cal Western and with Janis Joplin last spring. The group since has released two more albums, including their latest, "Your Saving Grace" which is number five in area album sales.

The Miller band, always with guitarist-singer-writer Steve in the center, has undergone a number of changes. Miller himself has been in a number of groups, in Texas and Chicago, before finding an audience in San Francisco several years ago.

With basic roots in the Chicago blues scene, Miller found new life in the emerging hip-world of the bay city and produced a revolutionary new sound.

His five-man band, backed up by ocean sounds and electronic tape gimmicks at the Monterey Pop Festival, blew minds.

His debut album, "Children of the Future" was a curious and successful mixture — one side blues, one side "space".

They're released three albums including the recently critically acclaimed "Elephant Mountain."

Nucleus of the group is bass guitarist Jesse Colin Young, Joe Bauer is the drummer, while Banana handles lead guitar chores.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

Is there a Thanksgiving Day in Spanish-speaking countries? Are there celebrations of thanksgiving corresponding to the ones we exercise here in the United States?

There is no national holiday like our Thanksgiving Day in Spanish speaking countries. As you know, our Thanksgiving holiday was started by our forefathers who wished to give thanks to God for the harvest which provided them with food for the long winters in the early settlement of our country.

Harvest time, even though not declared as an official holiday in most countries where Spanish is spoken, has been one of great jubilation and festivity. In particular, the harvesting of grapes in Spain and Mexico has been climaxed with "bailes" (dances) and "celebraciones."

Associated with harvest time are "oraciones" (prayers) of thanks. The act of "dando gracias" (giving thanks) has been an important part of Spanish-speaking culture for many centuries. An expression like "Damos gracias para la cosecha" (We give thanks for the harvest) have been heard since the time when Spanish settlers first arrived in California in 1769 with Father Junipero Serra.

Practice phrases listed below use variations of the expression "dar gracias" (to give thanks). They may be helpful in explaining our day of thanks to our local Spanish-speaking friends. You may practice them with the recorded voice that says them for you when you dial 276-2762.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "Damos gracias hoy." (DAH-mohs GRAH-see-ahs OH-ee) for "We give thanks today."
Say "Para la abundancia de cosecha." (PAH-rah lah ah-boon-DAH-ee-ah deh koh-SEH-chah) for "For the abundance of harvest."

USEFUL PHRASES:

Say "Yo doy gracias tambien." (yoh DOH-ee GRAH-see-ahs tahm-bee-EHN) for "I give thanks also."
Say "Para las bendiciones." (PAH-rah lah behn-dee-see-OHN-nehs) for "For the blessing."

OTHER PHRASES:

Say "Debemos dar gracias." (deh-BEH-mohs dahr GRA-see-ahs) for "We ought to give thanks."
Say "Todo el tiempo." (TOH-thoh ehl tee-EHM-poh) for "All the time."

Gas Rate Increases OK'd For 2 Firms
LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Southern California and Southern Counties Gas Companies were granted a $6.5 million rate increase by the Public Utilities Commission yesterday to offset increases in the cost of the gas they purchase from El Paso Natural Gas and Transwestern Pipeline companies.
The PUC also provided for provisional increases, which could total as much as $7.7 million, in case the pipeline companies make further increases.

We're paying a higher price for our supply of gas.

The gas we distribute to our customers is supplied to us by pipeline from Southern Counties Gas Co. Through the years, this has proven to be our most economical way to buy gas.

Southern Counties Gas Co. receives most of its gas supply from a major pipeline company — El Paso Natural Gas Co. Recently, Southern Counties had to pay more for the gas they purchase. In turn, the cost of gas to us has increased by approximately $2.7 million a year, with further increases likely.

Like most businesses, we're feeling the inflationary spiral in other ways also — high construction costs, rising operating expenses, and the increasing cost of labor.

The San Diego Gas & Electric Company has held to the same low gas rate for eight years. Since our last rate increase in 1961, our labor costs have gone up 43%, our construction costs 23%, and the general cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index, has increased 22%.

We are doing our best to provide you, our customers, with the best possible gas service at the lowest possible rates.

Miguel Students Plan Careers

Four Mt. Miguel students, out of the 20 chosen, will participate in the Career Planning Foundation program.

Julie Martin, Craig Stephens, Linda Polinski, and Lynette Zimmer started classes Monday, Nov. 17 under the vocational training system.

The foundation is presently accepting donations from private donors which in turn will be loaned to students who wish a higher education in vocational training. Money is lent out and the sum is to be paid back at the student's convenience with no interest charge.

Due to lack of funds, only 20 students, including the four from Mt. Miguel, are accepted for data processing training at the Electronic Computer Programming Institute. Hopefully by 1970 more students will be accepted for a wider range of vocational training.

There are still problems to be worked out of the system, such as scheduling, reorganization, and transportation, but it has opened a new avenue for students. Seniors wishing to involve themselves with this program can start in their senior year of high school, and be ready for a job by graduation.

Water To Be Subject

EL CAJON — Reclaimed water is about to become an integral part of the curriculum in the agricultural program of the Grossmont Union High School District.

Officials of the Otay Municipal Water District say reclaimed water from the Hillsdale treatment plant will be made available to the students to irrigate some 65 acres of school district land.

The plan is adjacent to the acreage which is located on Jamacha road near Hillsdale road.

Water officials say, "This will be the first practical usage of reclaimed water by the Otay district. The plant is currently producing more than 20,000 gallons each day."

The program, which will be coordinated by the Agricultural and Conservation Committee of the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club, will provide the students with as much water as needed to irrigate the land.

The agricultural program of the district is conducted at El Cajon Valley High School under the leadership of James Dyer.

Highlanders Study Bible

"Be on your guard, stand firm in the faith, live like men, be strong! Let everything that you do be done in love."

This quote from 1 Corinthians 16:13-14 expresses the meaning of the Helix High School Bible Study.

This group meets every Tuesday and Thursday mornings at 7:15 in room 61.

Everyone is welcome to attend, discuss and share what they have found to be true and inspirational in their lives. All have an opportunity to share their faith and purpose with others.

These meetings started early in the school year, with 25 to 30 students attending. This number is increasing each week.

According to Thomas Heyer, advisor of the group, the purpose of the Bible Study is to help students grow as a person.

"A self worth living with, a purpose worth living for, and a faith worth living by," he said.

Lose 10 lbs. in 10 days on Grapefruit Diet

—This is the revolutionary grapefruit diet that everyone is suddenly talking about. Thousands of copies have been passed from hand to hand in factories, plants and offices throughout the U.S.

Because this diet really works. We have testimonials reporting on its success. If you follow it exactly, you should lose 10 pounds in 10 days. No weight loss in the first four days but you will suddenly drop 5 pounds on the 5th day. Thereafter lose one pound a day until the 10th day. Then you will lose 1 1/2 pounds every two days until you get down to your proper weight. Best of all, there will be no hunger pangs. Revised and enlarged, this diet lets you stuff yourself with formerly "forbidden" foods, such as steaks trimmed with fat, roast or fried chicken, gravies, mayonnaise, lobster swimming in butter, bacon fats, sausages and scrambled eggs and still lose weight. The secret behind this "quick weight loss" diet is simple. Fat does not form fat. And the grapefruit juice in this diet acts as a catalyst (the "trigger") to start the fat burning process. You stuff yourself on the permitted food listed in the diet plan, and still lose unsightly fat and excess body fluids. A copy of this startling successful diet can be obtained by sending $3 for 1 or 2 for $5 to Gulf Co. P.O. Box 524 Lincoln, Nebraska 68501

Money-back guarantee. If after trying the diet you have not lost 7 pounds in the first seven days, another 6 pounds in the next 7 days, and 1 1/2 pounds every two days thereafter, simply return the diet plan and your $3 will be refunded promptly and without argument. Tear out this message as a reminder. Decide now to regain the trim attractive figure of your youth.

Senator Bayh at Grossmont Wednesday

Grossmont College will present Senator Birch Bayh, Indiana Democrat, in a special appearance at 8 p.m., Wednesday, in the Student Center.

Widely regarded as one of the Senate's outstanding constitutional authorities, Senator Bayh will speak on "Washington — The Changing Scene."

Bayh, chairman of the Senate Constitution Amendments Subcommittee, wrote and guided into passage the 25th amendment to the constitution on presidential inability and vice presidential succession.

He is the leading legislative figure in the effort to abolish the electoral college, to permit Americans to vote directly for president and is a strong supporter of 18-year old voting.

Bayh won an up-set election to the U.S. Senate in 1962 when, at 34, he defeated 18-year incumbent Senator Homer Capehart by less than 11,000 votes of more than 1.8 million cast.

In 1968, Republican Richard Nixon carried Indiana by 263,000 — the largest vote margin Mr. Nixon achieved in any state in the union. Bayh, a democrat, was able to withstand the Nixon tide and win re-election by a comfortable 72,000 vote margin.

The public is invited to hear Senator Bayh discuss behind-the-scenes political maneuvering in our nation's capital. There is no admission charge.

SV Jr. High Gets Results

Students at Spring Valley Jr. High got results with school's annual canned food drive.

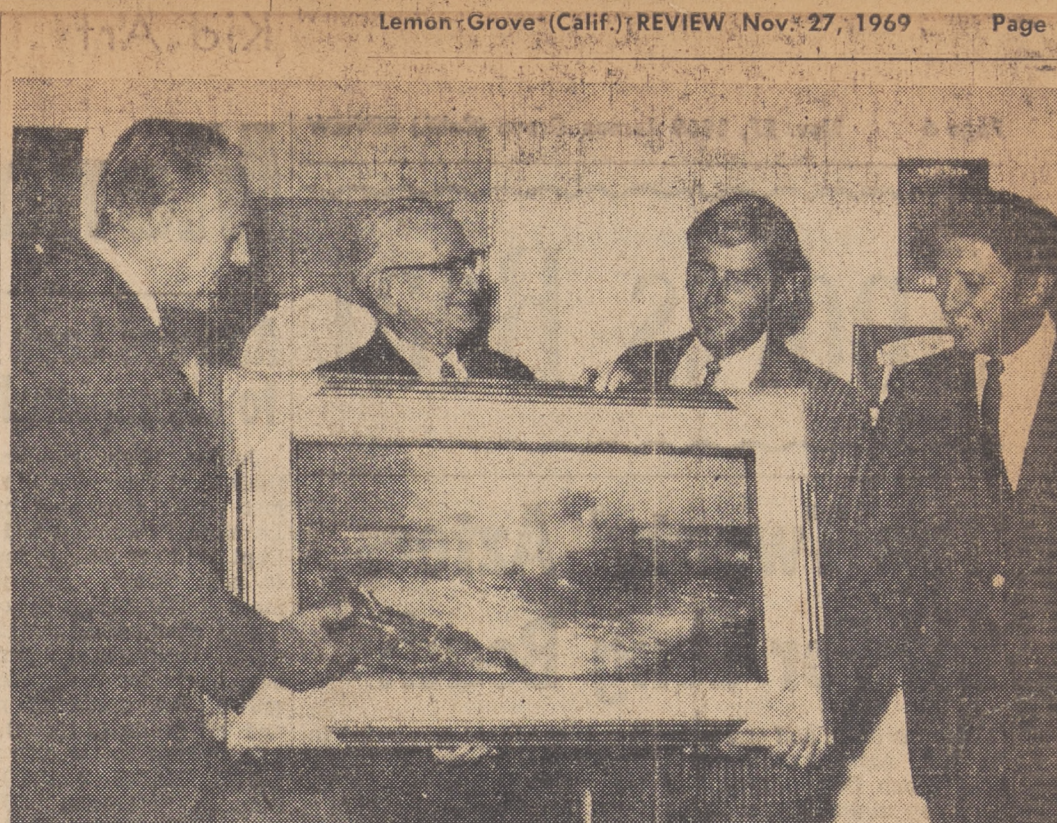

The three-day drive netted 3,071 cans of food from among the student body of 995 students.

One room of 37 students contributed more than a third of the total — 1,200 cans. The room was Raymond Fox's 8th-grade English-Social Studies class.

The food will be turned over to the Spring Valley Community Welfare, which will distribute it to needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Girls' League president at the school is Holly Stennett.

A New York decorator has been making free of charge the drapes used in the White House since the era of F. D. Roosevelt.

DONATION — Alex Struthers (left) of the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club presents a painting to the Monte Vista High School band. Craig Howry, also of the club, watches as Monte Snyder and Chuck Dappert accept the painting. A National City artist, Bill Steinbach, donated the painting to aid the band in this year's trip to Pasadena for participation in the Rose Parade.

UNICEF Cards On Sale Now

For the fifth consecutive year, the Postmaster General has authorized the sale of UNICEF Greeting Cards in the post offices throughout the country.

Volunteers will be selling the cards in 40 post offices in San Diego County, from November 17 to December 6.

UNICEF Greeting Cards benefit the work of the Nobel Peace Prize-winning United Nations Children's Fund and help provide food, medicine and education for needy children all over the world.

Many internationally famous artists have donated their work for UNICEF Greeting Cards and the UNICEF calendar. Mrs. Gertrude Bowdle, who is general chairman of the San Diego County Post Office sales, said, "We are offering 22 designs, ranging from traditional holiday and winter scenes to modern and even a humorous selection. The collection offers something for every taste, and all of them convey your holiday message and an additional message of hope to children in need everywhere."

Chairmen for the Lemon Grove Post Office include Eva Emerick and Mrs. Hensley.

Area Savers Reap Harvest, Woods Says

It may be only mid-November, but many thrifty Californians, East County residents included, have already presented themselves with an early Yuletide present — nearly $91 million in Bank of America Christmas Club checks.

In making the announcement, Al Woods, manager of the Lemon Grove Branch said that local Yule stockings will bulge with a $161,880 gift.

He noted that the money is being distributed in plenty of time for the holiday shopping season.

The $90.6 million in the thrift program's 46th year of operation surpasses the record high of 1968 by $4.2 million. This year's Christmas Club checks will average $218.12, up from last year's $210.55.

All told, 216,000 Southern Californians tucked away $46.3 million, while Northern Californians accumulated $44.3 million in nearly 200,000 accounts.

Most of this money will wind up under the Christmas tree on December 25, although some of the funds will be used for winter vacations or paying such year-end expenses as taxes and insurance premiums.

Band Given Cash Gift

SPRING VALLEY — A gift of $150 from the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club has been given to the Monte Vista High School band to help finance this year's trip to the Rose Parade — New Year's Day in Pasadena.

The band also received a painting by Bill Steinbach of National City which will be auctioned with proceeds also going to the band.

Steinbach displays his work annually for area Kiwanis Clubs and then donates a painting to be used in youth work. The paintings are usually raffled and all proceeds given to the area youth.

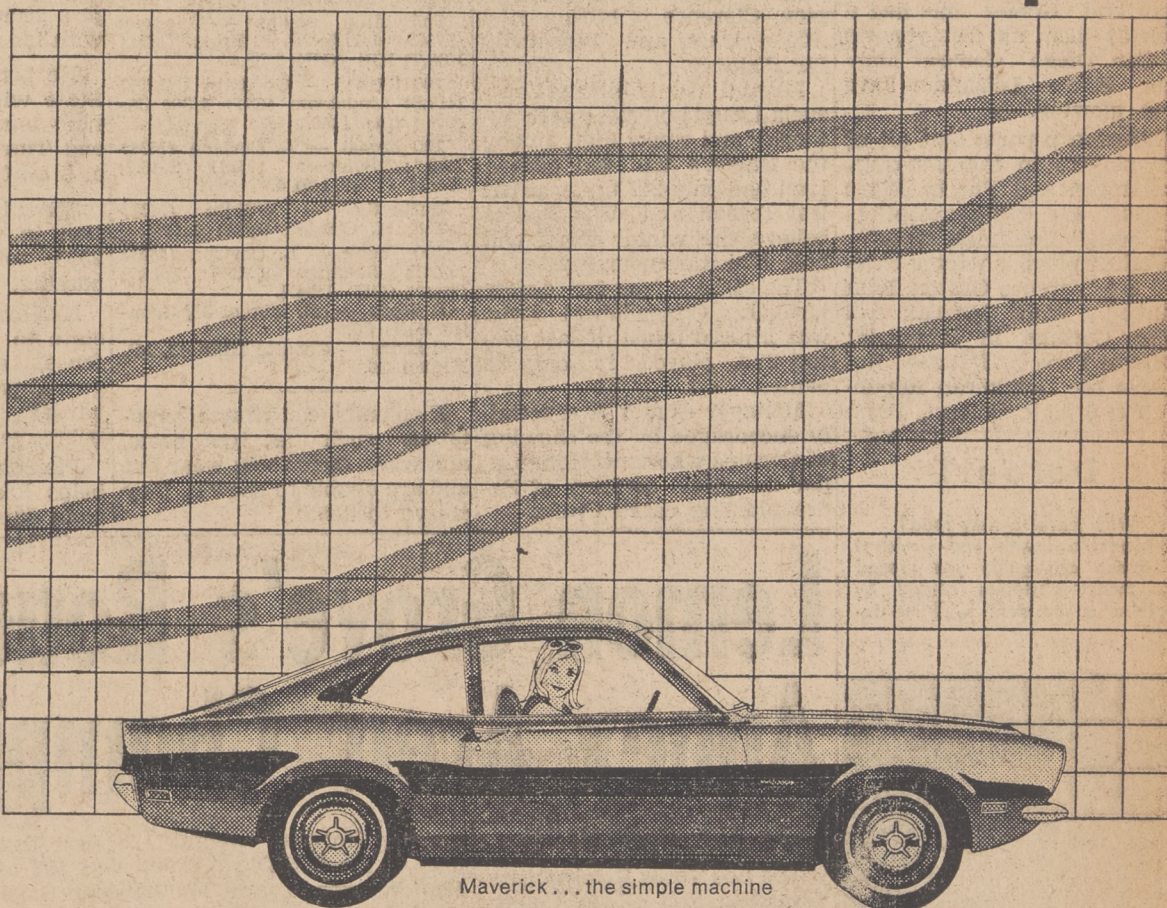

Monte Snyder, band director, receive both the check and the painting after leading the Monarchs to another award-winning year.

The band this year captured such honors as first place in the 12th Annual Autumn Band Review, Centennial Parade and the Santa Monica Band Review.

Snyder has been at Monte Vista six years and claims the band has still not reached its peak. He has also been honored by the student body with the Golden Apple Award.

Monarchs Learn Business Ropes

For students interested in the business world, Monte Vista's Business Club gives practical experience in everything from selling a commodity to investing in the stock market.

The students, under the direction of teachers Al Dionne and Donald Gilmore, sell candy after school and then use the profits, invest in stock on the New York or American Stock Exchange.

The club buys candy wholesale and then sells it for 15-20 minutes a day after school and usually grosses approximately $20 a day.

Members of the club must do their first work for five hours and at that time they receive one share of stock in the company worth 50 cents.

The club members may buy shares of stock in the club for 50 cents each. At the end of the year, stockholders have two choices. They can sell their stock for 50 cents each plus dividends based on the year's earnings or retire the stock into the investment fund which will be used for the Economically and Educationally deprived students of Monte Vista.

According to Gilmore, the objective of the club is to develop leadership and group participation while developing an understanding of free enterprise and capitalism.

'Top Twenty' Aztecs Set For Long Beach

It's nine down and one to go for the Aztec footballers of head coach Don Coryell this Saturday night as San Diego State will make a bid for its third unbeaten season in the last four years.

The only stumbling block remaining comes in the shape of Cal State Long Beach's 49ers who will test the Aztecs at 8 p.m. at San Diego Stadium.

Both clubs will bring unbeaten Pacific Coast Athletic Association records into the contest with CSLB standing at 3-0 and SDS at 5-0. The conference title isn't really on the line, despite the undefeated marks, as San Diego has already been selected PCAA champion and, hence, the host school for the Pasadena Bowl on December 6.

Overall, the 49ers are 8-2 and are on a seven-game winning streak after dropping two of their first three games.

Action last Saturday night saw the Aztecs pick themselves off the turf at San Diego Stadium and erase a 24-7 deficit to whip tough North Texas State, 42-24. The win extended State's unbeaten streak to 20 while upping their streak to 44-1-1 since mid-1965.

To cap a perfect evening, the record-breaking crowd of 48,817 saw the Aztecs give Coryell his 100th victory as a head collegiate coach. Overall, he now stands at 100-16-3 (.853) and at SDS 77-11-2.

Gomez In Puerto Rico To Check 1970 Padres

SAN DIEGO — San Diego Padre manager Preston Gomez is going to spend Thanksgiving Day in San Juan, Puerto Rico, "feasting" on the impressive performances of Padre players engaged in winter-league baseball.

Nine Padres are toiling in South America and the Caribbean and Gomez has had a look at them all. His reports to San Diego General Manager Eddie Leishman have been glowing.

"Preston reports that all of our players in the Venezuela, Dominican and Puerto Rican Leagues are doing exceptionally well," Leishman says.

Padres playing winter baseball are Clarence Gaston, Ivan Murrell, Walt Hrinak and Mike Corkins in Venezuela; Roberto Pena and Rafael Robles in the Dominican Republic and Nate Colbert, Fran-

REGAINS TOUCH — The San Diego Chargers suddenly found their offense after nearly a month-long drought and racked up a big win over Denver Sunday. A key to the fireworks was little Dickie Post, here returning a kickoff, who was on key for three touchdowns and 128 rushing yards in 17 carries. Brad Hubbert trails Post.

Aztec Pair in Shrine Game

San Diego State, since becoming a major college, is getting up there in football circles.

A pair of Aztecs, Dennis Shaw and Bill Pierson, have been selected to play in the annual Shrine East-West football game in San Francisco.

The game is set for December 27 and will pit Shaw against North Texas State's Steve Ramsey.

Shaw, SDS's record-breaking quarterback, is keeping pro scouts bathed in drool with his antics.

He bombarded New Mexico State with an NCAA record nine touchdown passes. Split end Tim Delaney caught six, also an NCAA record.

Shaw is also leading the nation in total offense, with 2523 total yards, mostly on passing.

His arm has also helped state to the lead in total offense, averaging 530.4 per game, passing offense (384.6 yards) and scoring (48.3 points per game).

Pierson, a 250-plus center, helps keep opposing linemen from dumping Shaw.

Post, Chargers To Invade Astrodome

The Thanksgiving Day edition of the Houston Post will be home delivered free today, compliments of NBC and the San Diego Chargers.

Dazzling Dickie Post, former pride of the University of Houston, will lead the Chargers (5-6) into the Astrodome today to battle the rugged Houston Oilers (5-4-2) in a nationally-televised game. KOGO TV and KDEO radio will broadcast at 1 p.m. (PST).

Post, who at 5-foot-9, 190 pounds looks more like a newspaper carrier boy than the leading runner in the American Football League, is the headline story on the Chargers.

Dapper Dickie ran up 128 yards and scored three touchdowns to share the hero's mantle with rookie quarterback Marty Domres as the Chargers finally erupted to whip the Denver Broncos, 45-24, before 34,664 at San Diego Stadium last Sunday.

It was the second successive 100-yard plus rushing game for Post (113 yards against Oakland the other),

Lance Alworth boosted his consecutive game receiving streak to 93 to tie Tommy Macdonald for third place on the all-time list. One catch against Houston and he ties Bobby Joe Conrad for second. The pro football record is 95 by Don Hutson.

San Diego's defense intercepted three Denver passes to boost its season's output to 23, compared to a total of 20 in 1968. With five quarterback tackles (three by Barnes and two by all-league end candidate Steve DeLong), the Chargers have 31 in 1969 compared to a total of 24 in 1968. DeLong has 14.

Vasquez' point after plunge into the left side missed by inches.

In gaining the championship Los Toros won six regular season games, amassing 266 points while allowing only 12 points. In the County playoffs the Roadrunners defeated Clairemont 46-0, rebounded from a 0-14 half-time deficit to defeat South Bay 16-14, and in the Semi-finals won over Alvarado 28-0.

By virtue of their Championship, Los Toros will be the San Diego County Midget representative in the Youth Football Classic at Balboa Stadium on Sunday. The Roadrunners will meet the Cowboys from Scottsdale, Arizona in a game that will be televised back to Arizona.

Kick-off time is noon. The County PeeWee, Junior Bantam, and Bantam Champions will also meet out of town opponents in the Classic at 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 4 p.m.

Mendoza, Heiserman, Lux Lead Runners

Monte Vista's cross country squad stayed alive in its bid for a CIF harrier championship as the Monarchs won their Class AA race on the Southwestern College cross country last Friday.

The Monarchs, after edging Mt. Miguel in the last league meet of the season for the league title, edged the Matadors once again in the pre-lims, 42-46.

The finals are scheduled for this week over a very hilly cross country course.

The Monarchs and Helix High emerged as the teams to beat in class AA competition after Friday's trials.

Helix won their race, beating a good Point Loma crew in the process, 31-56.

Highlander junior Ed Mendoza ran the fastest time of day, 10:16 for the 2.1 miles and teammate Dennis Rodgers was fourth in the same race with 10:42.

For the Monarchs, junior Tom Lux was fifth in 10:51, but teammates picked the slack as the team scored 42 points to edge Miguel in their heat.

Clairemont's David Harper, last year's county mile champ, won the race in 10:22.5.

Mt. Miguel's Gary Heiserman was second in the race, recording 10:50, to be followed by Oceanside's Ruben Heredia, Clairemont's Robert Burns, and Lux.

The top four teams in each race, plus the top five individuals, qualified for yesterday's finals.

Besides Helix, Miguel and Monte Vista, teams to compete in class AA will include Point Loma, San Diego, Madison, Clairemont and Castle Park.

Grossmont League runners

MONARCH LEADER—Monte Vista's Tom Lux led his team in yesterday's county cross-country finals. The Monarchs and Helix were co-favorites in the event.

Gulls Due Back For Phoenix Sat.

VANCOUVER, B.C. — The San Diego Gulls face the Vancouver Canucks here tomorrow evening, then return home to meet the Phoenix Roadrunners Saturday night at the Sports Arena.

The game tomorrow will be the conclusion of the three-game road trip. The Gulls opened road action on Tuesday night in Vancouver, then faced the Seattle Totems on Wednesday evening.

The Gulls carried a seven-game unbeaten streak onto the road trip. This was the longest unbeaten stretch on the road in the team's history.

The game against Phoenix will be a tough one. The Gulls and Roadrunners have met twice before at the Sports Arena this season, and Phoenix has won both times. The two teams played to a tie in the only game at Phoenix, and the Gulls trail in the seasonal series, 0-2-1.

Gulls' General Manager Coach Max McNab figured that the current road trip would be the toughest that the Gulls have faced thus far this season.

"Vancouver will be laying for us, and Seattle will be out after us, too," said McNab. "We will be going with 17 guys with (Irv) Spencer still out and it is going to be a tough go."

dominated Class A competition the same day, with Granite Hills and El Capitan runners winning their races. Both schools also qualified for the finals.

The official Grossmont League individual football statistics were released last week.

The Monarchs totaled 92 points for the season as Rich Weathers and Vince Campoli were team leaders with 18 points. Dan Read had 15 points.

Rob Wescott was Monte Vista's leading rusher with 417 yards in 84 carries for an even five-yard average. The team gained 852 yards as Wescott was credited with nearly half of the team's total rushing efforts.

Dan Read was the Monarchs' quarterback as the QB completed 53 aeriels of 109 attempts for a .486 completion percentage.

Bob Martin led the team and the league in receptions as he caught 28 for 420 yards and a 15-yard average.

Tony Harper as the punter for the Monarchy as he kicked 28 times for a 29.8 average and 834 yards.

The squad as a whole ended the year with a 1-6 record and sixth place finish under first-year coach Pat Carroll.

La Mesans Dominate Statistics

La Mesa's Collegian team dominated play in the final official California Collegiate League statistics released recently.

Besides winning the pennant with a 28-8 record, the team led the league in batting average (.305), runs, hits, total bases, triples, home runs, runs batted in, sacrifice flies and fewest opponents runs scored.

The team also had individual leaders in a number of departments, most prominently Ralph Nasif, James Fuller and Gilbert Gonzales.

Nasif, who played every game for the La Mesans at shortstop, led the league in runs (36), hits (53) and total bases (74), batted .376 to finish second in batting, and led shortstops in three fielding categories, including percentage (.973), assists (106) and double plays (120).

Fuller led the league in a pair of offensive categories, hitting (.386) and runs batted in (33). He was also second in runs, home runs and tied for third in hits.

Gonzales, a pitcher, racked up a leading 1.65 ERA while running up a 9-1 record, second in the loop.

He also fielded perfectly, leading moundsmen in that category, and batted a hefty .324 in plate appearances.

Mark Wiley, another pitcher, was 10-0 for the year, completing 9 of 11 starts and striking out 89 batters in 93 innings. His ERA was 2.13, third.

Other batting standouts for the team were Earl Altschuler (.375), Wayne Bradley (.357), Danny Coronado (.321), David Gonzales (.369), Erick Swanson (.299), and John Wathan (.330 and league leader in triples).

Runners in Finale

San Diego State's cross country team will do its swan song this Saturday when it competes in the annual Pacific Southwest AAU Championships at the University of California at San Diego.

Held on the UCSD campus, the race will send some of the finest runners in the district over a hilly 10,000 meter (6.2 miles) course.

The Aztecs will be running without two of their top performers in Tom Davidson (the defending champion) and Charlie Winsor. Both will be competing for the San Diego Track Club in the national AAU meet in Detroit that same day.

San Diego will be entering a representative team nonetheless as coach Tony Succi will go with Dennis Smith, Bob Messina, John Jacobsen, Mike Cour, Scott Claypoole, Ben Holt and Bruce Roberts.

A shortage of doctors continues in Africa where there is a ratio of one for each 25,000-50,000 as compared with one for each 500-1,000 in the U. S., according to the World Health Organization.

Grossmont College will open a California Arts Commission Traveling Exhibition of photographs titled "Face of California" on Monday, in the Student Center.

Created in 1963 by Assembly Bill No. 1, the California Arts Commission is charged with the general responsibility of insuring that "... the role of the arts in the life of our community will continue to grow and to play an ever more significant part in the welfare and educational experience of our citizens."

The California Arts Commission has surveyed the resources, needs and potentialities of the arts in the state and has developed action plans to help meet those needs.

Viewing hours are from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday until December 5 when the exhibition will move to the Library Foyer until the 13th.

Library Foyer viewing hours are Monday through Thursday, 7 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Friday, 7 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Saturday, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The public is invited to view this outstanding collection of photography. There is no admission charge.

Science fiction author Ray Bradbury will be a guest on the campus of the University of California, San Diego on Wednesday, December 3.

Bradbury, who wrote Martian Chronicles and Fahrenheit 451, is also a well-known author to readers who do not necessarily appreciate science fiction. This may be because he deals with real problems of our time, only exaggerating them and putting them into a future time.

After visiting with students and faculty members at a luncheon and in several classes, Bradbury will give a lecture at 8:30 p.m. in the Revelle Cafeteria. The topic will be "The Creative Impulse in Apollo Year One." Informal discussions and a reception at the Beagle Hall Guest Apartment will be held afterward at 10 p.m.

Equal Billing For God In New Texts

New science textbooks for California's public elementary schools will be written with due credit to the theory of creation as well as to the theory of evolution in their discussions of the origin and development of living forms.

This was the decision of the State Board of Education Nov. 13 in Los Angeles as it adopted a revised version of a controversial proposed science framework.

The board not only took the advice, but also the words of Vernon L. Grose, vice-president of the Tustin Institute of Technology, Santa Barbara, in amending the framework.

Grose held that creation should be retained as an explanation of "first causes," pointing out that there should be an alternative explanation to evolution, "which is based on conjecture at certain vital junctures."

He submitted a suggested revision which was adopted. It involved replacing a three-line statement which the California Curriculum Commission had substituted for an original statement which in effect accepted the evolutionary hypothesis and made no reference to the story of creation in Genesis.

The commission's revision stated: "The origin of life and the evolutionary development of plants and animals have long been of interest to the layman and scientist alike. The oldest explanation is a religious one, that of special creation."

Grose's more lengthy replacement reads: "All scientific evidence to date concerning the origin of life implies at least a dualism or the necessity to use several theories to fully explain relationships between established data points. This dualism is not unique to this field of study, but is also appropriate in other scientific disciplines such as the physics of light."

"While the Bible and other philosophic treatises also mention creation, science has independently postulated the various theories of creation. Therefore, creation in scientific terms is not a religious or philosophic belief. Also note that creation and evolutionary theories are not necessarily mutual exclusives. Some of the scientific data (e.g., transmutation of species) substantiate a process of evolution."

The framework then goes on as revised by the commission.

Other speakers against the framework as first revised made essentially the same points. Mrs. Barbara M. Taylor of Santa Ana, representing the Creation Research Society, also objected to what she called "the pre-selection of things the pupils are to discover through the inquiry method."

For a time the board leaned toward referring the framework back to the Curriculum Commission, since one of the commission members, Dr. Glenn Leslie, declared he could not accept, for the commission, responsibility for the latest revision.

Later, the board went along with Member Dorman Commons of Fullerton, who pointed out that time was flying and the board was empowered to proceed "without the Curriculum Commission's blessing."

If no further roadblocks are encountered, the State Board should adopt a new science series, written to criteria based on the framework, next year.

Continental Drift Is Lecture Topic

"Wandering Continents and Vanishing Seas" will be the topic for the last lecture to be presented this season in the Professors' Inaugural Lecture Series at 4:15 p.m. in the Humanities-Library Auditorium on the San Diego campus of the University of California on Thursday, December 4.

Dr. Edward L. Winterer, professor of geology and chairman of the Department of the Scripps Institution of Oceanography, will give the lecture.

"The ocean basins have a lucid but very short geologic memory — about 200 million years," he said, "and the records for all the remainder of the geologic history of both seas and land — about 3,000 million years — are stored in the rocks of the continent. We will peruse a few fragmental documents from these dusty and badly-kept archives, looking for evidences of continental drift."

Dr. Winterer joined Scripps Institution of Oceanography in 1962 as associate professor of geology, after having taught geology for nine years at UCLA.

The lecture will be free and open to the public.

Parks Dept. Prints Again

SACRAMENTO — Last Christmas when the State Department of Parks and Recreation offered its popular California Historical Landmarks booklet for sale as a "stocking stuffer," the result was a complete sellout.

This year, the department has ordered an additional printing of the updated publication in order to have plenty on hand for the 1969 season.

The 129-page booklet with its colorful cover and numerous photographs locates and describes the 827 missions, forts, ghost and mining towns, and other sites of historical interest throughout the state.

Landmark data is presented in numerical order by registration (highway marker) number, cross-indexed by county. Also listed are the many historic parks and monuments operated and maintained by the state. The booklet makes an excellent ready reference work, and its handy glove-compartment size makes it an ideal travel guide.

The price is one dollar, including tax and postage. It can be purchased at many state park offices or by sending a check or money order to the Reservation Office, Department of Parks and Recreation, P.O. Box 2390, Sacramento 95811.

'This is Mexico'

"This Is Mexico," the largest collection of folk and fine art ever assembled in this country, will end its nearly year-long appearance Dec. 28 at Balboa Park's Museum of Man.

Brought to San Diego by Mexico's National Tourist Council as that nation's salute to the city's 200th anniversary, the all-media show has attracted more than 100,000 visitors since it first opened in March.

Museum managing director Clark C. Evernham said the exhibits, which range from handcrafted furniture to delicate needlework, will remain open daily from 10 a.m. to 4:45 p.m.

The examples of folk and fine art which comprise the show's more than 1,200 separate items were assembled from 10 states of Mexico and reflect the output of skilled artisans as well as native workers.

The commemorative stamp of Dwight D. Eisenhower is the second jumbo size stamp issued by the post office.

RESULTS — Ben Seiler's and Irwin Seligman's 7th grade class gets behind the Lemon Grove, Jr. High School's canned food drive with a best-in-school 55 cans contributed by the 32 students.
